PARKING

We hate to bring up this parking question again, but a few facts seem to make it necessary to remind the students that they still have a few rights left.

We notice in the first place that students have been further hindered by a system of reserved parking spaces back of the "Y" Hut. The theory itself may be justifiable but when put into practice we notice that many of these places are empty during the day and that others are used off and on.

And then is this matter of parking across from the school, we notice that signs have been put up even along the empty lot across from the college building. We see no objection to the parking of cars here and we suggest that students take advantage of this and use it.

In conclusion we again wish to emphasize the fact that no law has as yet been passed against parking anywhere in the vicinity of the school. We do not suggest that students go against the wishes of the officials, rather do we say to obey them in the measures that will be of some benefits to someone.

However, in the name of the students who bring cars, we wish it known that whatever we do to help along this line we do because we wish to and not because we are forced.

TO FIGHT OR NOT?

What has happened to this aforesaid bull fight that was supposed to come off between the sophs and frosh. The matter has seemed to have gone the way of other good ideas that are not put into practice.

Tradition is also involved here again. Custom says that a bull fight should be held at the first of the year. So why not the fight? There are not many freshmen still wearing their beanies, but they have shown remarkable spirit considering that little force has been exercised by the sophomores.

And how can we expect the freshmen to live up to the traditions when the upperclassmen do not either. Freshmen come in for most of the criticism in college, but when they are not to blame it should be recognized by all.

As for this bull fight—the intention was good, but then the old saying tells us what is paved with good intentions.

THE SUPPORT PROBLEM

The sophomore dance last Saturday night was a success as far as dances go; we had a good time and we are sure that everyone else did also. But we are still doubting that the proper support was given this affair by the student body.

It does not take more than a hundred students to make a dance enjoyable but it does take more than that to make any student body function in this school a real success.

Women Students To Give Athletic Assembly Today

College Men Not Allowed To Witness Program; Helen Richards In Charge

Helen Richards, commissioner of women's athletics, will have charge of the assembly today, according to George Tobias, student president.

The program will be for women only and is given by W. A. A. members. Different sports, basketball, hockey and baseball will be interpreted.

The junior college dancing class will appear on the program, and Harriet Brackett will give a clog dance.

The purpose of this assembly is to get more enthusiasm aroused for girls' sports.

The assembly will be held in the high school auditorium today at 1 p. m.

Work Well Started In Language Clubs

The two clubs of the language department are both beginning active work, according to the two advisors, Miss Watson and Miss Swass.

Miss Watson announces that this year two French clubs will be organized one for advanced students and one for beginners. Meetings will be held every Friday, each club meeting alternately.

This year the French club is planning to entertain the French club of Fullerton junior college.

Catherine Jessup was elected to succeed Naomi West as president of the Spanish club. Chester Chandler was chosen vice-president and Calvert Norland will act as secretary-treasurer. Naomi West was elected reporter. Meetings of the Spanish club, according to Miss Swass, will be held monthly. Any student who has had two years of high school Spanish or is taking Spanish C is urged to join the club.

Dues of twenty-five cents per semester are assessed.

Sophomore Blazers Now Seen on Campus

The sophomore blazers are here! They are truly marks of distinction of Santa Ana college, and are the latest fall fashions. They are on sale at Hill & Carden's, a men's furnishing store.

At the sophomore class meeting last Wednesday it was proposed that all sophomores buy blazers and introduce them to the campus the same day. The motion was rejected, so each sophomore is to get his blazer as soon as possible.

There is a list of the sophomores at Hill & Carden's, so no freshman will be able to buy one of them.

NEWSPAPER PEOPLE TO ADDRESS PRESS CLUB HERE TONIGHT

Mark Felber of the Santa Ana Times will be the main speaker at the first meeting of the Press club tonight. The meeting is scheduled for seven thirty in the "Y" Hut.

Dorothy Clarkson, former feature editor of the Don and now society editor of the Times, will tell of her experiences of working on a daily newspaper. Ruby Gray will play and Jane Stewart and Lois Allen will play. Ray Lindman is arranging some informal games.

Louise Grisct, Ruth Ann Walker and Edith Johnson are planning refreshments.

Students interested in joining are urged to attend this first meeting of the Press club, and become acquainted with its work. The officers of the club who were elected last June are Adelaide Mueller, president; Calvert Norland, vice-president; Ruth Ann Walker, secretary-treasurer.

June Subject A Record Surpasses Fall Exam

Statistics compiled on the Subject A examination by Prof. Glenn show that 60 per cent of the students taking the exam at Santa Ana college last June passed, while only 55 per cent of those taking it in September wrote satisfactory papers.

The figures indicate either that the more intelligent students took the test in June or that those taking it in September had become "rusty" over the summer vacation. The June papers were graded by Berkeley officials and those written in September were graded in Santa Ana.

Santa Ana high school passed 57 per cent in June and only 50 per cent in September.

Out of 3,141 persons taking the examination in June at Berkeley 65 per cent passed.

According to Mr. Glenn's statistics, Orange county schools have a lower rating than outside institutions. The average school is said to have a rating of 75 per cent passed.

Men's Athletic Budget Decreased By Executive Board In Favor Of Algol Total Of $2,038 Allotted Athletics

Fred Humiston Appointed Business Manager of Year Book; Francis Larrabee And Mildred Staples To Be Girls' Athletic Managers At Special Meeting

That the men's athletic budget be decreased $310 in favor of the Algol was the decision of the executive board at a special meeting this morning. A total of $2,038 was allotted to the athletic commission while a total of $1,160 was given the annual.

HELLO TAGS ON SALE BY Y. W. C. A. TODAY IN MAIN BUILDING

Hello Day will again be sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. this year, the hello cards being on sale in the main hall today.

This day is an annual event, planned to create an atmosphere of friendliness and good fellowship among the students of Santa Ana college.

The tags are to be autographed by students and instructors and as many signatures as possible are procured.

Pauline Neddermeyer has designed the tags. Mary Bruner is in charge of the sale. The proceeds from "Hello Day" will be used for Y. W. C. A. work.

Algol Staff To Be Appointed Soon

Work on the Algol will begin immediately, according to Eleanor Turner, editor, as the staff will be appointed soon. The board will vote upon a business manager Monday.

The student body treasury has allowed $1,160 for the Algol, and with this amount an elaborate art scheme and distinctive type can be used.

Eleanor Turner, commissioner of the Algol, urges students to see her, if interested in doing work on the year book.

Snapshot editors, art workers, business managers and assistant editors and reporters will all be needed.

Y. M. Retreat Held Saturday To Sunday

Beginning on Saturday afternoon and ending Sunday, the Y. M. retreat will be held at Fletcher's cabin in Trabucco canyon.

An interesting program is promised, of which games and other contests will be the main feature.

Students are asked to bring bedding, a cup and a spoon, so that they may better enjoy their sleep and their meals. Everyone is invited, and those who wish to go may sign on the bulletin board. If students have camp cots that could be used, they are requested to see either Sterling Barnett or Lyles McNairy.

The question of transportation need not worry anyone, for if students have no way to go, it will be provided for them.

The change, according to members of the board, was due to the general opinion that last year's Algol did not come up to the standard worthy of the school. As the men's athletics asked for the largest increase over last year's amounts, that budget was the one that suffered.

According to Lyles McNairy, commissioner of men's athletics, the decrease will in no way effect football. If the funds run short it is probable that baseball will be discontinued for a year. However, this may not be necessary as a provision was made in the motion that if the income was so great to provide all activities with their requested amounts that men's athletics would be given all income over that amount until their request was reached.

At the same meeting the board appointed Fred Humiston as business manager of the Algol. Francis Larrabee and Mildred Staples were appointed girls' tennis and basketball manager respectively.

Lyles McNairy was instructed to advise the presidents of the sophomore and freshman classes that they will have charge of the annual rally and bon fire. Just before the first league game, that with Pasadena, was the time suggested for this affair.

The final budget as accepted by the board this morning is as follows.

Men's athletics	$2,038.
Women's athletics	299.
Forensics	150.
Social	406.
Algol	1,160.
Misc.	202.

These amounts make a total of $4,256, while the estimated income amounts to only $3,736. However, it is highly probable that football season will be so successful that the total will be reached.

Carlyle President Of Freshman Class

Following the student body assembly in the high school auditorium, September 26, the freshmen held a class meeting in which a president, vice-president, and a secretary-treasurer were elected. Wylie Carlyle took charge.

The results of the election were very close and are as follows: president, Wylie Carlyle, vice-president, Carol Bertolet, and secretary-treasurer, Delmer Brown.

School Spirit

School spirit is something which can either make or break a college. With an alert group of students, a school can progress by leaps and bounds, without it, college becomes just a mere four walls.

A student having a true spirit enters in his college life with all of the pep, enthusiasm and optimism he is capable of possessing. He enters activities and helps to put over anything which may need his assistance. He volunteers, and takes part in class discussions. He goes to all athletic games and forgets about himself in his desire to help his team win. He joins school clubs, and helps in programs, even if it is only to carry in chairs. He makes it a point to know as many students as he can, and speaks to them all regardless of social standing, wealth, or appearance.

In short, a student with a true school spirit is an all-round fellow—the friend of all, a co-worker, working for the good of his Alma Mater and not for his own personal glory.

Student Comment

School spirit—what is it and why is it?

Of all terms used in connection with school, life school spirit probably heads the list. You hear it throughout your high school years, and when you enter upon your college life the same words once more assail your ears.

First, what is this intangible something we hear referred to so often? No one definition can be given it, as most everyone expresses it in his own way, and it is not one of the terms Webster so fully explains. Then for the present, let it suffice us to call it the "soul" of a school, for that is what is in action—the soul of the school speaking forth.

Voice over the phone: "Is this the lady who washes?"

Society snob: "Indeed, I should say not!"

Same voice: "Why, you dirty thing."

Why is this element necessary in the life of the Santa Ana college? Because of what it is the "soul" of the college. It is the unseen power and driving force of the college; it binds us together as one great family; it makes us willing to sacrifice for the good of all and for the honor and glory of our college.

School spirit has played an important part in the life of the Santa Ana college in the past. Its role in the college life for 1928 depends upon the students of the college themselves. May we have an abundant amount of school spirit expressed this year.

Who's Who

Donald! A name of courage, strength and—Oh! horsefeathers. Another start. A name that brings to us memories and—yea—tears.

Can you recall a Don that is tall, handsome, blue-eyed, and curly haired. Mama, buy me him! There is such a fellow in our midst—hold those girls back, fellows—and He already has a girl. If you are downtown someday you will see this young man escorting a very pretty young lady out to lunch. By the way—the girl in the case—yes in his watch—works down town for the fun of it.

The big shiek and school boy of which I write is the captain and keyman of the college's championship football team and has already asked me to look out for his girl friend while he is in Hawaii this Christmas.

If you would like to hear a good joke, just catch this soph in a confiding mood. He is often seen "Dragging" to the tune of the Arkansas Traveller at Balboa's new Rende-vouse.

So They Say

Ray Lindman—What's the score?
Curtis Van Syoc—I'm from Iowa.
Ruth Freking—Isn't he a cute freshman?

Janitor Collins—No parking here!
Kate Kirvin—I like his car best.
George Tobias—Where's the bone?
Officer of the law—Show me your registration slip!

Jack Clarke—Aw, h - - !!!
Miss Swass—Recite Mr. Batty (Beatty).

Keith Trickey—I don't believe it.
"Red" Guyer—It's your turn to crank.

Doris Goff—Who introduced you?
Donald Woodington—Did you ever hear this one?

Eddie Gerhardt—Can you do the "Drag?"

Fletcher Dart—Hey Prof, the bell rang!

Harriet Hall—Gotta stick of gum?
Y. M. C. A.—Who stole the radio tubes?

Melva Fletcher—Hey "Red", seen Jack?

Professor Nealley—Class will please come to order!

Dean Cowley—It was 180 in the shade.

George Wardwell—Prove it.

Margaret Lutz—When do we eat?

Dean Fisk—Where did you read that?

Cecil Farnsworth—She lives in Riverside!

Wylie Carlyle—She's just a friend.

Merle Youel—I'm in a hurry.

Bill Poe—She'll do seventy-five easy.

Harold Watson—What's your phone number.

Charles Spotts—I'll be over Friday night, sheba.

Willard White—Aw, officer, I wasn't doing over twenty.

Frosh and sophs—Why didn't you ask her?

Myself—Why do they put such columns in the school paper.

Coo: "They tel me college men can't work their way to Europe on cattle boats any more."

Lidge: "Why's that?"

Coo: "The cattle objected."

A FROSH'S LETTER TO HER DIARY

My dear:

I am so broken-hearted that it is all I can do to sum up the effort required to pen these lines within your secret pages. I have been disappointed in love, my deary diary. My man has failed me. George doesn't love me after all, and I'm beginning to feel sure that I love him. It must be the real thing. I've never felt this way about a boy before, and I lay awake nights thinking about him, and when I do go to sleep I dream about him. But he has turned me down. He doesn't speak to me in the halls anymore, and he took another girl to the sophomore-freshman dance.

But I have a scheme. I'll bring him to his senses. I'll get another man and make George jealous. I'm going to make George so jealous that he will be awfully sorry that he turned me down. There are lots of other nice boys around school. Of course they aren't as nice as George, but they will do as substitutes. Harold Watson is an awful nice boy, and he is an Associated Student officer, too, just like George is. "Reg" Rust is a nice boy too, and he is a football star.

I think I'll try to get Harold first. It's a deep dark secret and I'm not telling anyone but you, dear diary. I'm sure George will get real jealous if I get Harold, cause Harold is a nice boy. I guess I love him second best to George, I'm after him now, but nobody knows it. He is beginning to be nice to me already; so I'm sure I can get him. I hate to turn traitor to George, but he wasn't true to me; so it serves him right. Anyway, I still love George, and I ought to be able to make him love me, if my scheme works. Don't tell anyone about it.

Vagrant Thoughts

Eight o'clock—quiet street—quiet disturbed Ford roaster rattles by—stops at house—driver runs lightly up the steps—knock is heard—voice, "Is Charlotte here, Mrs. Brown?" "No" door slams—discouraged voice—"Oh! Charlie, wait just a minute! I'll be down as soon as I powder my nose."

Some of "Reg" Rust's friends like to call him Emanuel—because he's Emanuel like.

Roy: "What! Were you roommates at college?"

Chuck: "No, I mean we believe the same kind of bunk."

Ruth Tantlinger: "My dear, Harold was perfectly priceless last night."

New Physical Education Instructor Former Santa Ana J.C. Student

Miss Zena Leck Attended Reed College, Oregon And U. C. L. A.

In the person of Miss Zena Leck, the physical education department of the Santa Ana junior college has obtained a valuable addition to its force of instructors.

Having attended both high school and junior college in Santa Ana, Miss Leck feels quite at home on the campus. However, she says that since she was a student here, the place has changed considerably. In fact, it was only a few years ago that Santa Ana junior college boasted a student body of fifty members.

Following her graduation from junior college, Miss Leck attended Reed college, Portland, Oregon for one year and the University of California at Los Angeles for three and one half years. Last year she taught in the Woodrow Wilson junior high school in San Diego.

Miss Leck speaks very highly of the Santa Ana high school and junior college physical education department. In organization and efficiency the Santa Ana department is far superior to that of San Diego, she declares.

She also is of the opinion that Santa Ana junior college students do not, as a rule, fully appreciate their

Coaching Opportunity Offered Boys

College fellows interested in coaching are offered an excellent opportunity in actual practice by taking charge of the coaching of the several elementary schools here in Santa Ana.

Last year a plan was worked out which gave the boys as well as the schools much benefit. This year much enthusiasm has been aroused due to the success of last year trial. A number of the fellows who worked last year are anxious to get back. Therefore Coach Scott urges that all interested see him immediately.

Last years plan worked out so well that the board sent out a letter of commendation to all of the boys who did the coaching. Later in this term it is hoped, by the coaches, that girls interested in athletic work may have the same opportunity as the boys.

opportunities here; that not until a students has attended other colleges does he realize what an exceptionally fine faculty Santa Ana college has.

Jack Casey believes in love tokens. Especially the idea that token live as cheaply as one.

COMPTON, Sept. 18, (A. N. S.)

—The end of the first week of school here found the enrollment practically double that of the same period last year. There are more than 360 enrolled at the present time. Over 200 of these are freshmen.

COMPTON, Sept. 18, (A. N. S.)

—New bleachers have been erected on the east side of the local football field. Seats for more than 3,000 are now available.

According to Joseph Marr Givinn, superintendent of San Francisco public schools, there will be no junior colleges in Frisco.

FULLERTON, Sept. 26, (A. N. S.)—School opened here on September 12 with a registration of 402 students, a twenty-five percent increase over the attendance at the same time last year. That number has neared the 450 mark with late registrations within the last two weeks.

At Whittier college a philosophy club has been organized. It consists of a small group of men interested in philosophy problems. The purpose of this organization is to benefit the new students entering the institution.

According to the latest indications, the attendance at Polytechnic high school of Long Beach shows an increase of one hundred more than those enrolled at the same time last year.

Macbeth Will Be Shakespearian Play Presented This Coming Spring

Three New Courses Added To Sciences

With the addition of three new courses, the enrollment in the science department is 108.

Among the new courses Mr. Scott is offering a course in north American scenery. During the year almost all of the points scenic beauty in North America will be discussed. At present the class is studying the valleys of Sierra Madre and Yosemite.

Physics 4A, also beginning this year, is according to Mr. Russel, a general culture course, covering the complete field of physics in one year. It benefits those students who wish a letter in science, and is not designed for those studying engineering.

The third new course is physiology, under Miss Conkle. This course is primarily for girls interested in physical education and home economics. It is the same course as is being given at U. S. C.

Those classes which have been offered in the past are also filled. The year has been carefully planned by the instructors in order that the courses may be equal to those given in the university.

Precedent Established Last Year With "Taming of The Shrew"

Masbeth has been chosen by Ernest Crozier Phillips, head of the drama department, of the Santa Ana junior college, to be the Shakespearian play which will be presented this year to perpetuate the precedent established last year of an annual Shakespearian play.

"The Taming of the Shrew" which was given last year was a remarkable production, judged by the many who saw it to be worthy of a professional production. Special sets were made in Los Angeles for it and costumes of the period of Shakespeare were rented. Marian Bruner and Ray Lindman took the leads in the comedy.

Mr. Phillips is especially partial to Macbeth since he acted in that tragedy when he was travelling with Mojeska's troupe for two years. The players especially enjoyed acting in the college towns where the students usually occupied nigger's heaven, according to Mr Phillips.

With a few additions to the twenty students in the drama classes, Mr. Phillips feels he will have an adequate and good cast for the play. Hudson's Shakespeare will be the edition used by the students. It is hoped that the play of a more serious trend will be as splendidly received.

Library Regulations

The following communication was received a few days ago from the library:

- That the library is open daily (except Saturday) from 7:45 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.
- That all books are due at 9 o'clock in the morning unless special arrangement has been made beforehand to keep them for a longer time.
- That a fine of 25c is charged for the first period and 2c for each additional period that a book is overdue.
- That you can help us and help each other by returning books to their proper places.
- That all books taken from the library must be charged at the desk. This is very important.
- That reserve books may be taken out at 3 o'clock in the afternoon except on Friday when they may be taken at noon.
- To bring books to the desk if you wish to have them reserved for your use at any special time.
- That current magazines are to be found on the magazine racks. Back numbers will be found in the cupboards at the rear of the room.
- That the books in the high school library are also available for junior college students.
- That the library should be a place for quiet study and do your part to keep it so. Help us to make the best use possible of crowded quarters.

Dear Friend:

After listening to the very popular opinion as to the wonderful time we had on the Junior Chamber of Commerce boat trip last year, we know you are anxiously awaiting the announcement of the second J. C. C. boat trip to San Diego.

We are happy to announce that plans are well under way and that reservations will go on sale October 1st, at the Westgate Steamship Agency. The Ruth Alexander will leave Berth 153, Wilmington at 9 p. m. Friday, October 12th, and will return Sunday, October 14th, at 9 a. m. Busses will leave our local depot for Wilmington and will call for us upon our return.

There will be entertainment aboard and you will enjoy yourself in San Diego. Saturday evening the Chamber of Commerce of San Diego will hold a banquet in our honor which we will all enjoy.

The price is the same as last year, $7.50 including three meals and berth. Tell your friends and help us boost this trip as our goal is three hundred persons this year.

Very truly yours,
JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Musical Happenings

The Long Beach Philharmonic all-star course, L. D. Frey, manager, sponsored by the Woman's Music club of Long Beach opens its season November 9, with the presentation of Fritz Kreisler, world's greatest violinist. All the programs will be given at the municipal auditorium.

The second celebrity on the course is Louis Graveure, baritone of New York, now the new tenor sensation on November 24. Maier-Pattison on December 7, will give a two piano recital which everyone enjoys, "It's different". January 11, Anno Case, America's most beautiful soprano, the "aristocrat of the concert stage," will sing. Tito Schysa "King of tenors," who has been a sensation in every one of his operatic roles will present his program February 8. The last number is by Oscar Leagle, eminent American baritone on March 15.

Rubinstein was entrusted, from his most tender years, to Velloing, an excellent teacher. Liszt wondered at the precocity of the child and advised him to tour England, Denmark, Germany. Paris applauded the magical talent of the young artist.

In 1862 he founded the Conservatory of St. Petersburg and abandoned the direction of the school in 1867.

As a composer he writes in a striding impassioned style with many contrasts, with boldness, but also carelessly.

The criticisms of all periods and all countries were often so strange, so contradictory, that he himself was amused at them, and said humorously, "The Jews look on me as a Christian, the Christians as a Jew; the Russians call me a German, the Germans a Russian; the composers regard me as a pianist and the pianists as a composer."

AN OLD COLLEGE CATALOGUE—

I've been rummaging thro' old books. One was a catalogue of the college I made famous. I saw among the professors: _____, Ph. D., L. H. D., D. C. L. (One degree from Princeton; one, from Cambridge, and one, from Oxford.

_____, D. D., L. L. D. (One degree from Harvard; One, from Hopkins.

There were two others, equally recognized. I knew them as a student in a small college knows the faculty, i. e., rather unfavorably to them.

Well, everyone of them had stomach trouble. They didn't know enough to eat right. None lived to a normal old age.

And I soliquized. Well, well, dumbbell! I know nothing and know that I don't. But I take my quart of Excelsior daily. I know that I know no physical ills. My chief pains are that the universities persist in overlooking degree-ing me. "Py tam I am!"

Santa Ana Plays Marred By Fumbles; Dons Lone Tally Is Result Of Blocked Punt

In a game that was featured by many fumbles the Dons met defeat at the hands of the Occidental varsity Saturday, at the Rose Bowl, by a score of 19 to 7. The Dons fumbled and nearly every one of the fumbles was recovered by the Oxy men. All the breaks of the game with one exception were in favor of the Tigers. The one exception was when Warner broke thru the Tiger line and blocked a punt, recovering the ball for Santa Ana on the Oxy three yard line. This gave the Dons an opportunity to score and they came thru in nice style.

Occidental did not show the strength that was really expected of them and but for the costly errors, our team made the score would have been more even. The team the Dons played was about on a par with the 'first string' according to Coach Keinholtz, the only difference being in the weight and the number of lettermen on the squad.

Rust, the husky blonde halfback on the Don team, was the flagrant offender in the matter of fumbles, but at other times his performance was splendid. At times his running was shifty and fast but he seemed to have difficulty in holding on to the ball. Two of the three touchdowns were presented them with two tallies on a silver platter, so to speak. Out side of that the two teams fought hard and play was mostly confined to the center of the field.

The Dons only tally came in the fourth quarter after Warner had blocked a punt and recovered for Santa Ana on Oxy's 3 yard line. Norton scored on the second play. The try for point was successful. The Don's line was functioning very well, Saturday. The boys were able to hold Oxy for downs frequently and on the offense worked very well. It was through the mistakes of the back-

Tigers Win From Bull Dogs 40 To 0

The Pasadena junior college football team was swamped by a score of 40 to 0 in the second game at the Rose Bowl last Saturday. The Oxy varsity seemed to have little difficulty in scoring and pierced the Pasadena defense at will. The Bull Dogs had a stubborn offense but were unable to do much with it. Their line was no match for the Oxy veterans and for that reason, the Pasadena team had difficulty in making any large gains.

From the way the Bull Dogs performed, it seems that the game between the Dons and the Pasadena bunch will be a hard fought contest. The Dons have a much better line and barring fumbles are equal to if not better than the Bull Dogs in backfield strength. However, the Bull Dogs have the old fighting spirit and a very stubborn offensive drive. It was rumored that Coach Keinholtz said the game would be a toss up between the two teams. He is alleged to have said that the Dons displayed more strength than the Pasadenans, but that the Pasadena team played tighter football than the Dons. If the Dons can learn to hang on to the ball, there should be no question as to the outcome but field that the Oxy team was able to pile up the score it did.

Following is the lineup of the game:

Occidental		Santa Ana
Millar	L.E.R.	Warner
Sharnock	L.T.R.	Hylton
Work	L.G.R.	Casey
Coulter	C	Woodington
Angst	R.G.L.	Warner
Popelka	R.T.L.	Weaverling
Weddington	R.E.L.	Harvey
Hitch	Q.	Norton
Howe	R.H.L.	Rust
Elliot	L.H.R.	Guyer
Hunt	F.	Dugger

Substitutions: Occidental: Morris for Williamson; Worth for Weddington; Popelka for Marx; Adams for Johnson; Edmonson for Hitch; Hensley for Sharnock; Davis for Blanchard; Blanchard for Angst.

Santa Ana: McLean for Weaverling; Crawford for Woodington; Adams for Harvey; Dutton for Guyer; Bertrolet for Dutton; Morten for McLean; Stein for Hylton; Clapp for Warner.

SPORT SHORTS

Lyles McNairy, energetic commissioner of athletics, may be sporting or nursing a cold this week. He had most of his clothing forcibly removed last Saturday night coming home on the bus from Pasadena. He was without covering for his nether limbs for several miles until some poor soul took pity on him and gave him back his shoes, pants, sox, shirt and tie.

Oxy Frosh played the Glendale junior college to a 0-0 tie last Saturday morning. The frosh made many fumbles and the playing generally was very poor, according to advices received here.

U. S. C. frosh defeated the San Bernardino junior college eleven by a score of 34 to 0. The frosh had no difficulty in defeating the Berdoo boys and yet played air tight ball themselves.

U. C. L. A. frosh and Compton junior college played to a 7 to 7 tie last Saturday afternoon at Moore field. Both teams played ragged football except on defensive work.

New bleachers have been erected on the east side of the football field at Compton, according to a report received here Monday. Seats for 3,000 are now available.

More Donnas Turn Out; Teams Increase

Basketball practice is progressing and present plans are for choosing the teams within the next few weeks. There will probably be three sophomore and three or four freshman teams. The teams will be of usual strength and will play off a tournament. Players will be given points for 1st, 2nd, and squad teams, according to their ability as shown in these games.

one can never prophesy the outcome of any game until after the game is over. However, as the Dons are scheduled to meet the Bull Dogs October 20, that gives both teams three weeks in which to perfect their systems of play and undoubtedly by that time both aggregations will be going strong. There is little or no doubt in football circles that the game will hotly contested for both teams will be wanting to start the season with a victory and with the coveted trip to Hawaii in mind, the boys will be playing hard football.

Dons To Be Seen In Action Saturday; Riverside Game Is Doped To Be Hard Fought Tilt

Chapman Elected Football Manager

Robert Chapman, a freshe from Tustin was elected football manager by the team Friday afternoon. Coach Cook first addressed the fellows and put the matter up to them. He said as far as he was concerned the boys were on a par as to ability but since the manager had to serve the team and he wanted the boys on the team satisfied, he would leave the final selection up to them. Also the losing candidate would be retained as assistant as there is more work than one lad can take care of efficiently.

The vote was called for and Chapman received the majority, thereby becoming manager. Louis Romoff, of Anaheim was unanimously given the job of assistant manager. The Don sport staff extends heartiest congratulations to both fellows and we feel assured that the football boys will receive plenty of care and attention.

Twelve candidates are now out for tennis. This is a 50 per cent increase over the first night, but not as many as this sport should attract.

Work is in progress on the constitution of the W. A. A. Some changes are to be made, but they will be published.
